

Event Sponsors: Jackson Humanities Institute, Institute for Islamic Studies, Centre for Medieval Studies, Collaborative Program in Book History and Print Culture, Department of History, Department of Near and Middle Eastern Civilizations

HOUARI TOUATI

Directeur d'études at the École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, Paris

THE CALLIGRAPHIC ALBUMS OF MEDIEVAL ISLAM

Images, left to right: Album calligraphique mameluke (fin du XVe siècle); Album calligraphique persan (fin du XVe siècle); Album calligraphique ottoman (début du XVe siècle)

Thursday 22 October, 4:00 p.m.

Jackman Humanities Building Room 100 (170 St. George Street)

https://www.humanities.utoronto.ca/event_details/id=1780

This event is free and open to all. For further information, please contact the Department of History at (416) 978-3363 or history@chass.utoronto.ca